

MCANJ Membership Meeting Review

Mechanical Contractors
Association of NJ, Inc.

July 2017

Monmouth University Polling Institutes's founding director, Patrick Murray, presents at MCICNJ's Annual "An Evening at Maritime Parc".

MCIC's key note speaker at their Annual "An Evening at Maritime Parc" was Monmouth University Polling Institute's founding director, Patrick Murray.

Patrick Murray was named the Monmouth University Polling Institute's founding director in 2005. He is frequently called upon by the media to provide commentary on polling and the political world. He has appeared on programs such as MSNBC's Rachel Maddow Show, Fox News' The Kelly File, CNN's The Situation Room, and ABC's Good Morning America, among others.

The Monmouth University Polling Institute was established to be a leading center for the study of public opinion on critical national and state issues. The Polling Institute's mission is to foster greater public accountability by ensuring that the public's voice is heard in the policy discourse.

At the event, Patrick Murray discussed National and State political trends that he sees for the remainder of 2017 and into the 2018 midterm elections. In November 2017, New Jersey and Virginia are the only two states that will elect a new Governor. The national political spotlight will be on New Jersey and Patrick explained what his polling institute believes will be the driving forces behind electing our next Governor.

He also analyzed what he believes to be the political future of President Trump's Administration after six months on the job.

Mr. Murray's presentation was well received by all.
